Visual, Auditory, and Kinesthetic Quiz

Read each statement carefully. To the left of each statement, write the number that best describes how each statement applies to you by using the following guide:

1	2	3	4	5
Almost Never	Applies Once In	Sometimes	Often Applies	Almost Always
Applies	A While	Applies		Applies

Answer honestly as there are no correct or incorrect answers. It is best if you do not think about each question too long, as this could lead you to the wrong conclusion.

Once you have completed all 36 statements (12 statements in three sections), total your score in the spaces provided.

Section One - Visual

1. I take lots of notes and I like to doodle.
2. When talking to someone else I have the hardest time handling those who do not maintain good eye contact with me.
3. I make lists and notes because I remember things better if I write them down.
4. When reading a novel I pay a lot of attention to passages picturing the clothing, description, scenery, setting, etc.
5. I need to write down directions so that I may remember them.
6. I need to see the person I am taking to in order in order to keep my attention focused on the subject.
7. When meeting a person for the first time I notice the style of dress, visual characteristics, and neatness first.
8. When I am at a party, one of the things I love to do is stand back and "people-watch."
9. When recalling information I can see it in my mind and remember where I saw it.
10. If I had to explain a new procedure or technique, I would prefer to write it out.
11. With free time I am most likely to watch television or read.
12. If my boss has a message for me. I am most comfortable when she sends a memo.

This form is provided in order you help you understand several important things about your professional relationship with your hypnotherapist and your rights as a client. Please read all of the information carefully. Feel free to ask questions about any item that you may not understand and sign the bottom of this form when you have read all the information.

Confidentiality

What you say to your hypnotherapist will be held in strictest confidence. However, you should understand that there are certain circumstances and conditions under which the content of your sessions may no longer be confidential. Below is a list of some, but not all of the circumstances under which your hypnotherapist may be ethically and/or legally obligated to disclose information about you. Because circumstances vary from individual to individual, it is impossible to provide a complete list of all possible circumstances under which the content of your sessions may no longer be confidential. Please discuss any concerns you may have about confidentiality with your hypnotherapist.

a) Your hypnotherapist is ethically and legally obligated to disclose information given in confidence if there is reason to believe that you may harm yourself or harm someone else. b) Your hypnotherapist is ethically and legally obligated to disclose information given in confidence if there is reason to believe that you are involved in or have knowledge of child abuse/neglect or abuse/neglect of an elderly or disabled person.

Despite the personal nature of the work that you and your hypnotherapist do together, it is important for you to understand that you and your hypnotherapist have a professional and not a personal relationship. In order for your hypnotherapist to maintain his or her professional objectivity, the interactions between you and he/she will be limited to scheduled sessions. Please do not invite your hypnotherapist to social gatherings, offer gifts, or ask your hypnotherapist to enter into a business relationship or relate to you in any way outside of your scheduled appointments. You will be best served if your relationship with your hypnotherapist remains strictly professional and concentrates exclusively on your concerns. If you meet your hypnotherapist in public or in a social situation, be aware of his/her ethical responsibilities and expect a short conversation.

As a client, you have some important responsibilities. Please attend all scheduled appointments and be on time. Please remember that once an appointment is made, your hypnotherapist has set time aside for you and it is your responsibility to cancel/reschedule your appointments within 24 hours of your scheduled time. If you fail to cancel or reschedule your appointment within 24 hours, you will be charged a 50.00/hr. fee.
